COUNCIL FIXES TAX RATE

At the recent meeting of the City Council the tax rate for the present year was fixed at $2.00, levied as follows: For general purposes, 75 cents; for school purposes, 75 cents; for Sinking Fund, 41 cents; for Massie Memorial Hospital, six cents; for Paris Public Library, three cents. A poll tax of $2.00 upon each male inhabitant of Paris over the age of twenty-one years, for school purposes, was adopted.

The action of the Council, at its meeting of August 11, in granting the Community Service Association use of the city rock quarry lot for a playground and for athletic purposes, was vetoed by Mayor January.

In vetoing the measure Mayor January gave the following reasons: "First, because I do not consider the finances of the city at present, or that they will be in the next year or two, in any better condition to purchase suitable grounds and to construct buildings for the proper care of the livestock and machinery that will be necessary to repair and clean our streets; second, because I do not know of any law that allows the City Council to turn over the property of the city to anyone without a valuable consideration, or by a vote of the people, or that the city be given some suitable valuable consideration."

By order of the Council the City Clerk was instructed to look up all persons who had been previously notified to construct new concrete pavements around their property, and to serve notice upon them that such pavements must be constructed within thirty days from date of notice. If the order of the Council was not obeyed, the work would be done by the city and steps taken to secure payment from the property-owners.

YOUNG FISH PLACED IN BOURBON STREAM

Representatives from the State Game Commission at Frankfort were in Paris a few days ago, in the interest of the work of the Commission. While here, they paid a visit to the fish hatcheries on the Xalapa Farm of Edward F. Simms, near Paris, and took away with them a consignment of 489 young bass, and 2,633 newlights and bream which were placed in Stoner Creek. They were assisted in the work by representatives of the Bourbon County Game and Fish Club. With the placing of these young fish in Stoner Creek, that stream is now well-stocked for the future, providing excellent sport in years to come for the legitimate fishermen who fish for sport's sake, and not for "pothunting."

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The public schools of Paris will open on Tuesday, September 5, for the fall and winter term of 1921-22 with a full faculty and promise of the largest enrollment in many years.

Miss Mary Louise Lillard, of Lawrenceburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lillard has been added to the faculty of the Paris High School for the session beginning September 6. Miss Lillard is a graduate of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, at Lynchburg, Va., where she made one of the best scholarship records in the college in recent years.

The schools of Bourbon county will open on Monday, September 5, for the fall and winter term of 1921-22. The attendance is expected to be far above the average of former years.

The Millersburg County High School will open its session for 1921-22 on Monday, September 5. The faculty is composed of the following: Prof. J. W. Lancaster, Mathematics and English; Russell Jones, A. M., Science and French; Emily Ford, A. B., Latin and History; Miss Flora Jordan, A. B., Music and Expression; Miss Jessie Crisp, seventh and eighth grades; Miss Elizabeth Rice, sixth grade; Mrs. Frank C. Bedford, fifth grade; Miss Hazell Kerr, third and fourth grades; Miss Nannie D. Clark, first and second grades, and penmanship in all grades.

Among the new colored school principals and assistants are Mary Lou Davis, Brentsville school; J. W. Callery, principal, Daniel Carmon, Henrietta Gaudy, Carrie Donehey and Julia Thacker, teachers, at the Little Rock school; Ella B. Arlington, principal of the Millersburg colored school, and Georgia Dinwiddie and Sophia Craig, teachers.

Paris High School has prospects for the greatest football team in recent years. Craig Tucker and James McClintock, for two years among the fastest backfield men in the State, will be behind the line again this year better than ever. Jacoby, who was picked last year as an all-Kentucky end, is heavier and faster now. Arnsperger, the old reliable center, will drop into line at 185 pounds. George Rose, guard, 200 pounds. Milton Adair, guard, 130 pounds. Rene Clark, Albert Wright, Harmon Taylor, Aaron Stern, Ralph Connell, last year men, and all with good speed and weight, will be back. About fifteen new men will try for places on the team.

Paris has arranged the best and hardest schedule the school has ever undertaken. Among the teams to be played are Georgetown, Midway, Carlisle, Nicholasville, Kentucky University, Model High, Frankfort, St. Xavier of Louisville, Covington High and Somerset.

"Better School Week," which opens in Kentucky on Sunday, September 4, under the direction of State Superintendent George C. Colvin, is being organized in Bourbon county, and will open with every minister in the county delivering special sermons on the value and benefits of education. At the Methodist church on Sunday night at eight o'clock, a special educational meeting will be held. Rev. C. H. Greer, pastor of the church, will preside, and Dr. William R. Campbell, president of the Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester, will be speaker of the evening. A special program of music will be rendered by the choir. Delegates from all parts of the county will attend this meeting. On Monday night, September 5, a special meeting will be held at the Hutchinson church. Mrs. Robert Bell, County Attendance Officer, presiding. At Clintonville, on Tuesday night, September 6, a special meeting will be held, with Ernest Darnaby presiding. Mr. Darnaby is a member of the County Board of Education. The interest in the campaign is at high tide.

C. S. Holbrook, of Winchester, O., has been employed as principal at the Center-Hill Consolidated School. Mr. Holbrook has his A. B. degree from Columbia University.

INVESTIGATING RUCKERVILLE FIRE

As the result of investigations made by Deputy Fire Marshal W. A. Booth, of Frankfort, a warrant was issued Saturday by County Attorney D. D. Cline for the arrest of Henry Davis, colored, charging him with arson. Davis is suspected of having set fire to the Montague house in Ruckerville, which resulted in the destruction of four homes and another being badly damaged. Davis was located in Ruckerville and placed in jail to await his examining trial before County Judge George Batterson.

Davis was taken before County Judge George Batterson in the County Court yesterday afternoon for a hearing. A large number of witnesses were examined, several of them testifying they had seen Davis fleeing from the vicinity of the fire when first discovered. Others testified to seeing him lurking around the Montague house before the fire started. After hearing the testimony Judge Batterson held Davis in $400 bond to appear before the grand jury at the next term of the Bourbon Circuit Court. He furnished bond and was released from custody.

D. A. R. RIVER TRIP

Paris people will leave this morning on a special barge for a river trip to be conducted under the auspices of the Jemima Johnson Chapter, D. A. R., of Paris.

The barge will make the round trip from Frankfort to Clifton, in Woodford county, for one dollar. All money thus realized, above the actual expenses incurred, will be turned into the treasury of the Chapter. Several of the Chapters from surrounding towns have signified their intention of joining in the day's pleasure.

Paris people can leave here on the Paris-Lexington-Frankfort interurban line for Frankfort, where the boat will leave at 10 o'clock sharp. Returning the boat will arrive at Frankfort about two o'clock, p. m., where members of the Frankfort Chapter will take the visitors in charge and show them the places of interest in the city. Each one is requested to take along a simple box lunch which will be spread and enjoyed on the homeward trip down the river. Members of the D. A. R. and friends are cordially invited to attend. Particulars concerning the trip may be obtained from Mrs. E. F. Clay, Mrs. Charlton Alexander or Mrs. C. M. Clay.

RACING SEASON AT LATONIA OPENS SATURDAY

The Kentucky Jockey Club has announced a very attractive list of stakes for the meetings at Latonia, Louisville and Lexington this fall. There will be nearly $100,000 in added money for these events. Racing in Kentucky this autumn will comprise forty-seven days, of which Latonia has thirty-one, opening the fall session on Saturday, Oct. 8. Then Louisville comes with ten days from Wednesday, Oct. 12, to Saturday, Oct. 22, and Lexington with a six-day meeting from Monday, Oct. 24, to Saturday, Oct. 29. There are eight stake events on the program for Latonia, which includes the rich Latonia Championship; four at Louisville and two at Lexington—the Breeders' Futurity and Lexington Cup.

NOTICE OF CHANGE

The Singer Sewing Machine Co. announces a change in their management in Paris. The office has been moved from the Masonic building to No. 7 Broadway, in rear of Bourbon-Agricultural Bank building, and is now in charge of Mr. J. H. Scott, an up-to-date, hustling manager, who will be glad to have you call at the new office. Supplies of all kinds are kept on hand. An up-to-date hemstitching parlor will be added in a few days, but can take care of all orders now. Also orders for pleating and button making will have prompt attention.

SINGER SEWING MACHINE CO.

J. H. SCOTT, Manager.

REPUBLICANS TO SELECT A CAMPAIGN MANAGER

A meeting of the Bourbon County Republican Committee was held Saturday night at the court house to make arrangements for the campaign to be conducted prior to the general election in November. A meeting was called for next Saturday night, Sept. 3, at the court house, at which time a plan of action will have been mapped out, and a campaign manager selected. County Chairman W. A. Thomason says his party is preparing to conduct an aggressive campaign in the city and county.

BURLEY GROWERS SIGNING UP EVERYWHERE

Ninety-six Owen county tobacco growers Saturday signed up 496,250 pounds of tobacco within an hour after Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill had finished a powerful speech, in which he made an appeal for a union of the growers in the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Marketing Association. County Chairman A. T. Mills, had prepared a barbecue and burgeo, which were enjoyed by a crowd estimated at 6,000 to 10,000 persons.

Previous to the meeting workers had signed 400,000 pounds to the contract of the association, giving Owen close to 900,000 pounds under contract to the marketing association.

Mr. Cantrill brought news from Bourbon, Woodford and Fayette that the big growers were signing the contract and that the other counties which carried the border of the old pool need have to fear of the result in the Central Kentucky counties.

Fayette county tobacco growers had signed to the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Marketing Association 65 per cent. of the acreage planted this year at the close of a five-day precinct campaign Saturday. The work will be continued until the 75 per cent. of the crop is secured.

The following meetings will be held this week and next week:

Tuesday, Aug. 30.—Maysville, J. Campbell Cantrill, 2 p. m.

Friday, Sept. 2.—Meeting of county chairmen, Phoenix ballroom, Lexington, 2 p. m.

Saturday, Sept. 3.—Lancaster, Judge Robert W. Bingham, 1:30 p. m.; Lagrange, J. Campbell Cantrill, 1:30 p. m.

Monday, Sept. 5.—Paris, J. Campbell Cantrill, 1:30 p. m.; New Castle, Judge R. W. Bingham, 1:30 p. m.

BASEBALL NOTES

A game on the Simms lot yesterday between the Mt. Airy Giants and the Main Street Tigers afforded plenty of amusement and excitement for the spectators, who were kept guessing as to what the final outcome would be. The final score stood 13 to 4 in favor of the Mt. Airy Giants. The batteries were: For Giants, Hinton and Rice; for the Tigers, Jordan and Cahal. The game was umpired by Determan and Determan. During the play a lad named Morrison was hit in the temple by a thrown ball, and seriously injured, being removed from the field for medical attention. Paris Ruggles team went to Winchester, Saturday, for a game with the Hustlers. The score when the battle was over, stood 8 to 0 in favor of the Hustlers.

Paris experienced a second defeat at the hands of the Cynthiana team when on the latter's grounds, Sunday afternoon, in the presence of a large crowd, the Maiden City team administered a defeat to the Bourbonites by the score of 9 to 3. Paris did not get a glimpse of the home plate until the final inning, when they managed to put three runs over. The game was marked by listless playing on the part of the Paris tossers, who seemed to be afraid of Dud King's reputation, not being able to do much with his delivery. At one time in the early part of the game Paris had bases full, but could not get in a score. Cynthiana thumped the horsehide sphere for a total of seven runs in one inning, the fifth, added one in the third, and one in the seventh, making a total of nine to the good. Campanoni pitched an excellent game, but was accorded ragged support by his teammates. The score by innings:

Paris. . . . . 000 000 003—3

Cynthiana. . . . . 001 070 100—9

The third game in the Paris church league series will be staged at the Second street park at three o'clock this (Tuesday) afternoon, between the Methodist and Presbyterian teams. This is expected to be a real hot contest, as these two teams are tied for first place. Neither team has lost a game since the organization of the league. Both teams are confident of victory, having strengthened their line-up since their last game.

The Methodists, with such fast men as Porf, Gambel, Soper and Downing added to their aggregation, have laid detailed plans for the utter annihilation of the Presbyterians. It is understood that Clay Ward will probably twirl against the Methodists. Fans have heard quite a bit concerning the past performances of Ward, who is a former star of the University of Virginia. From the Presbyterian camp comes the news that with Ward in the box and their usual teamwork going, it will be a sure thing with them. One of the biggest crowds of the season is expected at this game.

	W.	L.	Per Ct.
Methodists. . . . .	1	0	100
Presbyterian. . . . .	1	0	100
Christian. . . . .	1	0	100
Baptist. . . . .	0	1	0

VETERANS OF WARS IN LEGION PARADE THURSDAY

Wearers of the blue and gray and those who donned the khaki, together with Spanish-American war veterans, will march side by side to the strains of martial music in the mammoth parade to be held during the State convention of the American Legion in Lexington on Thursday and Friday of this week.

More than 2,000 former service men and women from all parts of Kentucky are expected to attend the third annual convention of the legion. Headquarters will be established at the Lafayette hotel, where Miss Gertrude Chambers, of Louisville, State registrar, will have charge of the registration in the morning of the first day.

General Roger D. Williams will be grand marshal of the parade and Colonel Samuel M. Wilson will be assistant marshal. It is expected that several hundred former service men, together with the members of the G. A. R. and U. C. V. organizations and Spanish-American war veterans will participate in the parade.

The uniform for the former army men in the parade will consist of black tie, with olive drab shirts, breeches, hat, spiral leggings, web belt and any insignia. Former navy men will wear their white uniforms and any insignia.

ROSCOE ARBUCKLE IN "THE ROUND UP"

The millions of film patrons who have laughed themselves into various stages of helplessness at the famous Fatty Arbuckle comedies released by Paramount will have a new thrill when the comedy star appears in a legitimate role in the stellar part of Slim Hoover in "The Round Up," a George Melford production for Paramount, which comes to the local movie houses Wednesday and Thursday, August 30 and September 1.

Tom Forman wrote the scenario and also plays the hero in the picture, while Mabel Julienne Scott is the pretty heroine Irving Cummings, Jane Acker, Eddie Sutherland and others appear in the all-star cast.

Thrills, sensational episodes, fights with Indians and outlaws and similar western features keep the spectators on the anxious seat while the participation of Roscoe Arbuckle in the story lends an added lustre to the production.

BURLEY MARKETING CAMPAIGN

The promoters and solicitors in the Co-operative Burley Tobacco Marketing campaign being waged by the association in this county are still very optimistic over the prospects for the future. They are putting in all the available time, and making each hour bring some results. As a rule the farmers and growers have taken very kindly to the proposition, seeing in it a possible solution of their marketing troubles, and hoping for relief to the situation through this means.

The latest report from the committees was to the effect that about 5,500,000 pounds of tobacco in Bourbon county have been so far signed up and several of the precincts have signed up ninety-nine per cent. of the total acreage in their vicinity. Several members of the committee have had contracts mailed to them the last few days by men who took them home to study them over before signing.

As the growers come to more fully understand the merits of the marketing plan, they find it easier to accept and sign their contracts, making the work of the solicitors much easier. The campaign will proceed the remainder of this week, when it is hoped there will be a large list of signers to be reported to headquarters.

DRILLERS STRIKE GAS

The California syndicate drilling for oil on the Lee Stephenson farm, near Clintonville, have struck pockets of gas at varying depths in the wells being put down, and have passed through three paying sands which give good promise for the future. The drilling machines were put to work last Thursday and have been going continuously since then.

It is the intention of those in charge of the work to sink the wells to a depth of 1,200 feet. They have now reached about half that depth, and the results attained are very encouraging. The syndicate is composed of Los Angeles, Calif., capitalist, the work on the leases being under the supervision of I. S. Cooper, formerly of Clintonville. For many years the presence of oil in that vicinity has been indicated from surface showings, and it is the hope of the promoters to give the field a thorough test.

RUNNING RACES AT BLUE GRASS FAIR

Running races are a daily feature at the Blue Grass Fair, Sept. 5-19. The purses are large enough to attract the best horses and the price of admission is only 50 cents. You can see more for this insignificant sum at Lexington than at any fair in the world.

EDITORIAL FLINGS OF THIS THAT 'EN TOTHER

"Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep,
If I should die before I wake—
Well, I should worry!"

In these days of price-slashing we have noticed that the Paris butchers have not stopped when they cut to the bone. Yow!

Making a blackberry pie, a strawberry pie, a strawberry shortcake and a bowl of boiled custard upon a whitewashed wall is an amusement—in the movies.

A kiss is generally used as a noun. It is never declined. More common than proper. Sometimes used in the singular, although more often used in the plural number. It agrees with me.

A highly educated man is one who does not use an adjective where an adverb should be employed more than five times in ten, and observes his error in three cases in five, flinching and wondering if others observed.

Paris man remarked after reading of a traveling man being "held up" in his room at a "well-known and popular" Lexington hotel: "That's nothing. I've been held up every time I ever went in that place, from the front door to the back."

Read the accounts in the daily newspapers of the long list of women being murdered each day, and it will not take a mathematician to figure that at the same rate of speed there will not be enough of them left to insure every man a wife in a few years.

We can remember the day when the grocers used to make early morning rounds to take orders from the housewives. Now the telephone has the job and motor truck delivery takes the place of the old time horse and delivery wagon. Verily, this is a progressive age.

There is a widespread disposition on the part of farmers this summer to plant only enough grain and food-stuffs for their own personal needs. But we notice the farmers of Bourbon county are coming to Paris with their market baskets and buying many vegetables. That looks strange.

The advent of the automobile is turning people of the Bluegrass into a community of gypsies. Like roving Bedouins, their machines (not tents) can be seen on all roads in Central Kentucky. They are like a ship without a sail, and perfectly at home on any old road, as long as the gasoline holds out.

A five-year-old Paris lad residing on High street had just become acquainted with the boys who moved in across the street. His vocabulary immediately expanded. Although accustomed to the use of slang his mother was quite shocked when she heard him say one evening as he was preparing for bed:

It used to be that any old dub could predict that the tobacco crop would grow out after late summer rains had descended, without going to the country and taking a look. It is different this year, as lots of the plants have not advanced in size for sixty days. Bugs working on the roots, it is said.

Page the shade of Luke McLuke! A girl named Audrey Rainwater resides near Somerset, in Pulaski county. Man named Watercutter lives in Winchester, where a Washington, D. C., girl named Eldorado Diffenduffer is visiting. Here in Paris we have Ruttencutter, Taodvine and Fussnecker. Ach, Gott in Himmel!

The English language is the most wonderful on earth. A dispatch from Lexington says Isaac Chitwood was caught in bad company when he was arrested one day last week in company with a ten-gallon keg filled with moonshine whisky. The best of men are looking for that kind of company.

HE WAS TALKING TO ELKS

(Louisville Herald)
Three members of the local lodge of Elks who have just returned from a trip through Western Kentucky bring back the following story for the truth of which they all vouch: One day on their way to Wild Cat Hollow, one of the most picturesque places in Todd county, they stopped at the log cabin of a farmer who had quite a large family. They talked to him about the crop prospects, the urgent need of rain and the dryness of the country since the eighteenth amendment went into effect.

The farmer told the visitors he was raising eight acres of corn and an acre of potatoes. He had no other crops.

When asked how much he raised per acre he somewhat hesitatingly replied: "Oh, about twenty-five gallons an acre."

STOLEN AUTO RECOVERED

Through Mayor E. B. January an automobile, bearing the license tag No. 12883626, abandoned on Link avenue, in this city, by the parties who had stolen it in Mt. Sterling, was recovered and restored to its owner, W. K. Williams, of Mt. Sterling.

The automobile was found parked on the side of the road on Winchester street, near Link avenue, at an early hour Wednesday morning, by passers-by, who called Mayor January and notified him of the find. The Mayor notified the Mt. Sterling authorities, and in this way the ownership of the machine was established. The car was taken back to Mt. Sterling, Wednesday night, by a representative from one of the Mt. Sterling garages, who identified it fully as belonging to Mr. Williams.

A dry goods store had been robbed in Mt. Sterling during the night of goods valued at about $1,500, and it is believed by the police that the thieves used the Williams car to bring their loot away. It is thought they abandoned the car near where it was found and made their way to the Louisville and Nashville station, where they embarked for Cincinnati. No traces of the stolen goods have been discovered by the Mt. Sterling authorities.

MOTOR CARAVAN TO PASS THROUGH PARIS

Four distinct caravans of motorists will leave various sections of the South on the morning of September 5 for the purpose of uniting in one grand cavalcade of automobiles at Lexington on the morning of September 8, and then proceeding to Cincinnati to inaugurate the convention of the Dixie Highway Association, which will be held in that city on September 8, 9 and 10.

One of the four divisions referred to will form at Jacksonville, and will comprise tourists from the east coast of Florida. The second division will form at Gainesville, Florida, and will be made up of cars from western Florida and southwestern Georgia. The third division will start from Brunswick, Ga., and tour by way of Savannah and through the Carolinas, while the south division will be launched at Augusta, Ga., and will move toward Atlanta.

There will be consolidations along the route of divisions from Rome, Ga., Chattanooga, Macon, Nashville, Knoxville, Asheville, Louisville and other cities on both the eastern and western branches of the Dixie Highway, all these various divisions having their final rendezvous at Lexington by way of Paris and the Independence pike, being met at the outskirts by reception committees and brass bands, and escorted into the city.

BOURBON EXHIBITORS AT THE EWING FAIR

The Ewing Fair closed Saturday one of the most successful meetings of its entire existence. The crowds that attended during the three days were the largest ever present for this event.

The live stock shows were better than even the company had expected, especially in the hog department. There were more than two hundred animals in the hog pens. Among the breeders who showed swine were Walter S. Meng, of North Middletown; A. P. Shropshire, of Lexington; and Ora Lebus, of Cynthiana. The fair company, encouraged by its success this year, is planning the addition of several buildings on its grounds, and expects to have a still better fair next year.

PEACE TREATY WITH GERMANY SIGNED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Signature of the treaty of peace between the United States and Germany was announced formally at the State Department, Thursday, by Secretary Charles Evans Hughes.

The text was made public, followed by a statement in which the Secretary summarized the provisions of the treaty, which is a document of about 1,500 words.

The treaty is designed to re-establish the diplomatic relations broken off February 3, 1917, and consists of three articles and a preamble.

Article one guarantees on the part of Germany to the United States rights and privileges received under the Porter-Knox peace resolution, including "all the rights and advantages stipulated for the benefit of the United States in the treaty of Versailles."

Specific provision is made that the United States shall not be bound by the clauses in the Versailles treaty providing for a League of Nations, and that no action of the League shall be binding on the United States unless the United States gives special permission.

It also is declared that the United States cannot, without its assent be regarded as a party to commissions concerned in reparations and other conditions growing out of the war.

These reservations are made in Article 2, in which the rights and advantages for the United States, as set forth in the Versailles treaty, are referred to.

It is made clear that "while the United States is privileged to participate in the Reparations Commission" under the Versailles treaty, it is not bound to participate in it.

Article 3 provides for the ratification and exchange of copies of the treaty.

The treaty provides that the United States assumes no obligation under those parts of the Versailles treaty relating to the boundaries of Germany, to the political clauses for Europe, to those embracing certain provisions with respect to China, Siam, Liberia, Morocco, Egypt, Turkey, Bulgaria and Shantung.

It is provided that the United States shall not assume any obligation for that part of the Versailles treaty relating to international organization of labor.

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax The Women of Paris the Same as Elsewhere

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back.

A woman should not have a bad back—

And she seldom would if the kidneys were well.

Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands. Ask your neighbor. Have been used in kidney trouble over 50 years.

Read what this Paris woman says: Mrs. J. R. Moore, 133 E. Eighth street, says: "I was in bad shape with my kidneys a year ago. My back nearly killed me with pain. There was a steady, dull ache just over my kidneys and I was weak and miserable. I often had to let my housework go undone and I would get so dizzy that black specks came before my eyes. My feet and ankles swelled, too. I doctored for a time but got no relief, so finally began to use Doan's Kidney Pills. My health was greatly improved in a short time and two boxes cured me. It is a pleasure for me to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

Tax Ordinance!

City of Paris, Ky., 1921.
Be it ordained by the Board of Council of the City of Paris, Kentucky:

That the tax rate in the City of Paris, Ky., for the present year be, and the same is fixed as herein set out and that said levy be made up on all properties in the city of Paris, subject to taxation for said purposes: For General Purposes . . . $.75
For School Purposes . . . $.75
For Sinking Fund . . . $.41
For Hospital . . . $.06
For Library . . . $.03

Total . . . $2.00

On call of vote Ford Brent, H. Brent, Doyle, Moreland and Williams voted yes. The Mayor declared the ordinance adopted.

Mr. Williams moved and Doyle seconded that a poll tax of two dollars be levied upon each male inhabitant of the city of Paris, Kentucky, over the age of twenty-one years for school purposes. Mr. Ford Brent moved to amend the motion and was seconded by H. Brent by levying a poll tax of two dollars upon every legal voter in the city of Paris. On call of vote on the amendment, Ford Brent and H. Brent voted yes, Doyle and Williams voted no, there being a tie vote, Mayor January voted no. The amended motion was lost. On call of vote on the original motion, Ford Brent, H. Brent, Doyle and Williams voted yes. The Mayor declared the original motion and ordinance adopted.

BOURBON HORSE PRIZE WINNER

NOTES FROM THE SCHOOLS

The Perry Lumber Co., of Lexington, was the successful bidder for the new bungalow to be built for the teachers at the Center-Hill consolidated school, near Centerville. The award was made at a recent meeting Monday, and it is expected to be ready for occupancy about the middle of October. The Board appropriated $3,000 to be used for this purpose, and, while the amount of the contract is said to have exceeded this slightly, the remainder will be raised by means devised by the Center-Hill community.

DEATH COMES TO SENATOR CHAS. HARRISS

Chas. M. Harriess, Democratic leader in the Kentucky State Senate and president pro tempore of the last session, died at his home near Versailles, at 9:40 o'clock Wednesday night. Senator Harriess had been seriously ill for two weeks, and his life had been despaired of for two or three days. His death was caused by uraemic poisoning.

He was in a comatose condition for several hours before the end came.

Senator Harriess was one of the best known Democratic leaders in the State. He is survived by his widow and two little daughters, one aged four, and the other not yet a year old; two brothers, Theodore Harriess, cashier of the Harriess-Sellers Bank of Versailles, and John E. Harriess, magistrate of Woodford county; three sisters, Mrs. John H. Berryman, Mrs. Hunter Brothers and Mrs. Jennie Barkley, of Versailles.

Senator Harriess was born in Woodford county, Kentucky, May 23, 1873. He was the son of Nathan and Margaret Morgan Harriess.

He was educated in the public schools of Woodford county, the University of Kentucky, Transylvania College and the University of Virginia, securing his legal education at the latter institution.

He was for many years actively engaged in business in Versailles, besides operating a farm and practicing law. He was elected State Senator from the Twenty-second Senatorial District at the November election in 1917 and during the 1920 session was chosen president pro tempore of the Senate, presiding over that body in the absence of Lieutenant Governor S. Thurston Ballard. Since the 1920 session he has several times been acting Governor of Kentucky when Governor Edwin P. Morrow and Lieutenant Governor Thurston Ballard both were out of the State at the same time.

During the war Senator Harriess served as a major in the judge-advocate general's department at Washington.

Senator Harriess was a member of the Christian Church, the Masonic order, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows, Red Men and the Kappa Alpha and Phi Delta fraternities.

The funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon, at the family home. The burial will take place on the family lot in the Versailles Cemetery.

GIANT AIRSHIP EXPLODES IN ENGLAND

The giant airship ZR-2, purchased by the United States from Great Britain, exploded over the city of Hull, England, according to advices received in London shortly after 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

The airship was passing over Hull in fine style when suddenly it was seen to break in two. Instantly there were terrific explosions and the airship burst into flames and commenced to descend. Three parachutes were seen to leave the ZR-2.

It was while the ZR-2 was cruising over Hull that she was seen to emerge from the clouds and suddenly break in two. One portion appeared to rise in the air. The other descended slowly and fell into the Humber. One explosion occurred as the ship was falling and another after it touched the water. The wreckage floated on the water about 200 yards from the riverside quay and continued to burn.

It is known that at least six survivors have been picked up, one of them with a broken leg.

NOTES OF THE LODGES

Alexander Gordon Sulzer, of Maysville, Grand Scribe of the Grand Chapter of Masons of Kentucky, inspected Cynthiana Chapter No. 17, Royal Arch Masons, last night. The Most Excellent and Royal Arch degrees were conferred on a number of candidates by High Priest Cecil Florence. Among the visiting brethren present at the inspection and conferring of the degrees were M. H. H. Davis, Oscar Hinton, Newt. Smith and Jos. H. Ewalt, of Paris, Everette Paterson, Dr. J. A. Smoot and McElroy Cochran, of Maysville.

Greeted by his friends as the oldest living Free Mason in the country, Samuel Cox, of Marblehead, Mass., took his usual birthday walk Saturday at the age of 102 years. He was made a member of Philanthropic Lodge there seventy-five years ago. The organization presented him with 102 roses.

Special arrangements are being made by Lexington Council, No. 21, J. O. U. A. M., for the entertainment of the 500 delegates from all parts of the State who are expected to attend the meeting of the State Council of Kentucky to be held in Lexington, September 6, 7 and 8, during the week of the Blue Grass Fair. The Lafayette Hotel has been designated as official headquarters for the convention and the business sessions will be held there beginning Tuesday, September 6. The next day the visitors will be entertained at the fair.

There will be work at the meeting Thursday night of Rathbone Lodge No. 13, K. of P., when the First Rank will be conferred on a number of candidates. All Past Chancellors are requested to be present.

Don't forget the box supper to be given by the A. J. Lovely Company, No. 34, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, on the night of Wednesday, August 31. There will be a good time for all who attend, as the committee in charge of arrangements has completed a "regular" program. Every member of the A. J. Lovely Company, his wife, sister, sweetheart, and other friends of the Company are invited and expected to be present and enjoy the evening. Remember, tomorrow night, Wednesday, Aug. 31.

BUSINESS CHANGES

Warwick Bros., of Mt. Sterling, have purchased of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Keller their business in this city known as "The Sweet Shop," and took possession yesterday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Keller have conducted "The Sweet Shop" successfully for the past six years. They have formed no definite plans for the future. Mr. Keller will take a vacation trip soon to visit relatives in Texas and other points.

T. T. Templin has sold out his paint and glass business on South Main street to Kane Bros., who will conduct the business in the future at the same stand. Mr. Templin and family have moved to their country home on the Bethlehem pike, near Paris. Kane Bros. are carrying a large display advertisement in THE NEWS.

Frank Collier, at present a member of the firm of Collier Bros., located in business on South Main street, purchased last week of Lawrence D. Mitchell, his grain, feed and coal business, in the old Hutchcraft grain elevator, on Pleasant street.

Mr. Mitchell, it was understood yesterday, will leave about Sept. 1 for Fernwood, near Charleston, W. Va., where he will take a position as special assistant to the Superintendent of a big coal company. Collier Bros. will move to the Pleasant street quarters about September 1.

FIRE AT SHAWHAN

Fire, yesterday morning, originating from an overheated stove, damaged the residence of Dr. H. B. Anderson, at Shawhan to the extent of several hundred dollars. The roof was partly burned off and the interior of the kitchen and dining room damaged by fire, smoke and water.

The men of the vicinity rallied to the rescue, and forming a bucket brigade, had the flames under control before the arrival of the Paris fire department's big pumper, which went to the rescue. In fighting the fire the bucket brigade emptied three large cisterns on adjoining property.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS HOLD RALLY AT LEXINGTON

One of the largest Christian Endeavor rallies ever held was held Friday night in Lexington, at the First Presbyterian Church. All the surrounding towns, Paris, Nicholasville, Georgetown and Winchester, were well represented.

The national convention held in New York, July 6 to 11 was reproduced by the following delegates: Rev. R. R. Murphy, Lawrence Little, Miss Emma Duncan, D. L. Y. Farley, Miss Elizabeth Crystal and Miss Minnie Pherigo, from the Blue Grass region.

The Blue Grass Union was organized for the purpose of boosting the State convention which will be held in Lexington next May. The first of the Blue Grass Union meetings will be held in Paris, October 28.

WHERE WAS THE FIRE?

Members of the fire department had a game of "Find-the-fire" Sunday afternoon, when they responded to an alarm turned in from Box 25. Just before the alarm came in an excited feminine voice over the 'phone stated that a big touring car was on fire. The firemen could not locate the auto and entered the call on their records as "False Alarm."

STREET WORK PROGRESSING

Reconstruction work on High street, from Fourteenth to Fourth, is under full way. The large excavating machines of the Henry Bickel Co., have about finished their part of the work, and the bed will soon be ready for applying the rock and concrete surfacing. Sewer trenches are being dug on Fifth street preparatory to laying sewer pipes before the beginning of reconstruction work. Concreting the side streets between Main, High and Pleasant is under way, and will be pushed to early completion.

NOSE BROKEN BY BALL

During the game between Paris and Cynthiana on the latter's grounds Sunday afternoon, Arthur Zorne, of Paris, a spectator in the grand stand, was hit on the nose by a foul ball, which forced its way through the wire netting in front of the grand stand. His nose was broken in two places. He was taken in an ambulance to the Harrison County Hospital, where the injured member was given medical attention, and later brought to his home in Paris.

INTERURBAN PASSENGERS TRANSFER

Arrangements have been made by the Kentucky Traction & Terminal Company operating the interurban line between Paris and Lexington, with C. E. Endicott, of Paris, for conveying passengers to and from the present terminus of the road at Fourteenth street, free of charge in a large motor truck. This arrangement will be continued until the completion of the new tracks being laid on High street, from Fourteenth to Fourth streets. Like "the Toonerville Trolley" the truck "will meet all trains."

PLAYGROUNDS TO CLOSE

The Paris Community Playgrounds season will close on Saturday, September 3, with a parade and play program, the latter to be held on Broadway in front of the court house. The space on Broadway, between Main and High streets will be roped off at this time, and the children will form in line for the parade within this space. They will parade as far as Tenth street, and return to the court house square, where the exercises will take place at three o'clock, in the afternoon.

At the close of the exercises refreshments will be served to the children who take part. The parade will be led by the Paris Boys' Band. All children who desire to take part in the parade are requested to be on hand promptly at two o'clock.

PARIS WOMAN FIGURES IN NEWS STORY

The Cincinnati daily papers of Sunday carried a news item, in which one of the chief figures is said to have been a Paris woman, as follows:

"Covington police are still investigating the story told by women giving their names as Mrs. Myrtle Sowell, 28, of near Lexington, and Minnie Feeback, 20, of near Paris, taken off a southbound Louisville and Nashville freight train Thursday. Federal authorities have also been asked to investigate the manner in which they said they were induced to go to Cincinnati."

"They said that they were trying to 'hobo' their way home when taken from the train. They said they left their homes in response to representations of a woman who said she was an agent for a Cincinnati concern and who promised them work. They told the Covington authorities that they were taken Tuesday night to a house in Cincinnati frequented by men and escaped Thursday morning."

ALLEGED SPEEDERS ARE FINED IN COURT

Judge Martin's court presented the appearance Saturday of an automobile club, or gathering of enthusiasts, when a score or more of speed law violators were before him for a hearing. The Court held an all-day session, beginning at ten o'clock, a. m., and lasting through the afternoon. The offenders were arrested by Special Policemen McGoldrick and Feeback. The following cases were heard:

Vail Baldwin, jury trial, not guilty; Dave Butler, fined $10.00; P. F. Rash, insufficient evidence, dismissed; Charles C. Clark, case continued to September 10; D. G. Taylor, fined $10.00; Clarence Wasson, fined $7.50; Mrs. Ben Buckner, plead guilty, fined $7.50; Mrs. Denis Dundon, case continued to September 10; H. B. Pence, fined $7.50; James M. Caldwell, fined $7.50; Charles W. Spears, fined $10.00; Catsey Woodford, case dismissed; Eugene Lair, case continued to September 10.

One of the first cases to be disposed of was one against Passoneau, organization manager of the Co-operative Burley Tobacco Marketing Association, who exceeded the speed limit in going through Paris on a business trip some days ago, and was caught by the eagle-eyed cops. Mr. Passoneau contributed his $7.50 to the city's funds. He pleaded guilty, but stated that he did not believe he was going more than sixty miles an hour.

RELIGIOUS.

—The Christian Church Sunday School Convention of Bourbon county closed an interesting session at Little Rock, Friday. The following from Paris attended the session: Rev. W. E. Ellis, Mrs. E. P. Clark, A. L. Boatright, Mrs. Lizzie Walker, Mrs. Mary Walker, E. T. Hinton, M. O. Biddle, John Young and family.

WHERE IS THE HUMANE SOCIETY

In the past few days THE NEWS has learned of several instances where the good offices of a Humane Society might have been invoked as a punishment for several heartless persons who have exceeded the limit in cruelty to animals. In each case reported the cruelty was wanton and without shadow of excuse.

The first case was that of a prominent man, a former resident of the county, whom our informant stated, cruelly beat a fine bird dog until the animal was almost exhausted. The pleas of neighbors alone prevented the animal from meeting a fate worse than death. In another instance a colored man is said to have beaten a mule until the animal was covered with blood and bruises. Other instances of wanton cruelty to helpless and defenseless animals have been known to us personally before these cases were cited.

Some kind of punishment should be meted out to these people, who use their strength in this wanton manner. Some years ago Paris had a branch of the Humane Society, with a Humane Officer, and for a time the society did good work. But at this time its usefulness seems to have suffered a relapse and no one knows who the authorized agent of the society is. If such an organization is no longer in existence, it should be reformed, and authority placed in the hands of some fearless man who will see that the offenders are arrested and brought to justice.

MERCHANT TELLS A REMARKABLE STORY

Really Sounds Incredible, But Well-Known Man Testifies To Truth Of It.

Writing from Maxeys, Ga., Gillen, proprietor of a large department store at that place, says:

"I have a customer here who was in bed for three years and did not go to a meal at any time. She had five physicians and they gave her up. One bottle of Tanlac got her up, on the second bottle she commenced keeping house and on the third bottle she did all the cooking and housework for a family of eight."

This sounds really incredible, but it comes unsolicited from a highly creditable source and is copied verbatim from the letter.

TRIES TO SELL WHISKY TO PROHIBITION OFFICER

Charles N. Wiard, United States Commissioner, arrested Frank Tatman, alleged Woodford county bootlegger, who Wiard says, offered to sell him some whisky at Clifton Tatman entered a store and asked who wanted to buy whisky. The commissioner responded and said he wanted more than Tatman was carrying in a gunny sack.

Tatman led him to another sackful along the road and Commissioner Wiard put him under arrest, confiscating several quarts of moonshine and raisin jack. The commissioner ordered Tatman to take him to his home; but Tatman pointed to the house of a neighbor, who was away from home, as his and as Commissioner Wiard was starting his search a woman drove up and declared it was her daughter's house. On being informed of his errand, she showed the commissioner where Tatman lived. He found only a barrel half full of fermenting fruit.

SWIFT & CO.'S WEEKLY PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Continued declines have been noted in the butter market during the week but at the close the market has warmed up with improved demand from the retail trade.

Heavy volume of live poultry reaching the market has resulted in lower quotations on both live and dressed poultry.

Poultry plants generally have sufficient help to take care of average receipts, but any sudden large increase in volume would make it difficult to handle. Even marketing is therefore suggested.

Egg production is about normal for this season of the year, but, because of inferior quality, only a small proportion of the eggs will command top prices. Better care and attention on the farm and more frequent marketing will result in higher prices being paid to the producers.

NO REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP

There is nothing scientific about the Fordney tax bill. Neither the White House nor the Republican Congress has ever had a tax program; in fact, the White House has had no program about anything except to pay election debts and keep the party together. The making of the tax bill has been a matter of guess work and catch-as-catch-can, a matter of temporizing and grasping at straws. This and that have been suggested as things to tax only to be abandoned. The lack of leadership has been painfully apparent.

The trouble has been principally that the making of the tax bill as well as the tariff bill has been done with only political effect in mind; the spirit of policies has ruled in a matter which should have been considered only as an economic measure. The tax bill is designed to fool the people, but it will not fool them; it will fool only those Republican reactionaries who have sacrificed an honest financial policy to political expediency. The very best it can accomplish is to postpone the day of wrath.

NEW ROAD BEING CONSTRUCTED

A new roadway, to connect the Colville pike with the Ruddles Mills and Cynthia pike, is being constructed by the Bourbon Road Commission through the farms of Clarence Lebus, Harry Lake, and others in the Ruddles Mills vicinity. The sum of $2,000 has been subscribed by farmers along the proposed pike, a distance of one mile, toward the construction work. The project is planned for completion in about thirty days. The new road will afford a means of quicker communication between the vicinities mentioned.

FORMER PARIS MAN WOULDN'T BE REFUGEE

The "American named Harrow," who laughed at Chas. R. Crane, former United States Minister to China, when the latter suggested taking him out of Russia as a refugee during his recent trip through that country, is no other than Warren Rogers Harrow, a native of Paris, Ky.

The family lived in the Cane Ridge neighborhood of Bourbon county. They moved away a number of years ago, but are well remembered by many residents.

In a special cable dispatch to The New York Herald from Reval, Mr. Crane is quoted as explaining that Harrow is the proprietor of iron works in Petrograd and that the Bolsheviks expelled him from jail in disgrace for causing such a disturbance, and now allow him to run his establishment in his own way without interference.

Discussing the incident, The New York Herald says:

"H. B. Slate, of 8 Clark street, Brooklyn, who has known Harrow for years, said: 'Harrow is one of the best salesmen I ever knew. He is about 60 years old and went to Europe in the early nineties. He built a smelting plant at Petrograd. His friends here wonder how he has managed to get along with the Bolsheviks, as he is intolerant of dictation. Why I knew him to throw up a job with the Howe Scales Company in Chicago once when he didn't have a red cent just because a sign was put up prohibiting smoking about the place.'"

AGREEMENT ON ANTI-BEER BILL REACHED.

The conference report on the anti-beer bill, definitely agreed on, and presented to the Senate, exempts a man's home from search without warrant obtained in due course of law, but requires no warrant to search other property, provided an officer acts without malice and has reasonable cause to suspect the presence of liquor.

Along with the presentation of the report, word reached the Senate that prohibition leaders of the House had declared there would be no recess of Congress until the measure had been finally enacted. Senate leaders, on the other hand, announced that it was hopeless to expect Senate acceptance in view of the rejection by the conferees of the Stanley amendment passed unanimously, and designed to protect the home and other property from indiscriminate search through imposition of heavy penalties.

The only point at issue in final deliberations of the managers was the searching provision. In reaching a compromise both the Senate and House amendments on the subject were discarded.

LEXINGTON FALL TROTS PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

President E. A. Tipton, of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, has announced the full program for Lexington's Fall Trot meeting October 3-15, inclusive. As usual there will be ten days of the sport with two days reserved for postponements for weather.

The program consists of 40 races, or four each day, with a total valuation of $75,000. The purses are $1,000 events, with the exception of those for the faster classes, which are $1,500 each. No purses is less than $1,000, while they range in value up to $14,000 for the 3-year-old division of the Kentucky Futurity.

The classes range from the 2:05 to 2:19 trots and 2:01 to 2:17 paces with a special 2 and 3-year-old trot. The program is especially well off for colt classes, as some years ago a 3-year-old trot was added to the Kentucky Futurity and the Lexington Stake.

Liberal nominations have been made to the early closing events of which there are eleven on the card and with the usual entry list in the purse events, one of the best, is not the best, meetings ever held at Lexington should result.

(Courier-Journal)

One of the most interesting places to be found is the housekeeper's room at a large hotel. Here the maids and porters bring all articles left behind by guests. Of the valuables most of them are locked in the office safes.

Since the time of the first robbery of a room in one of the pioneer hotels persons have acquired the habit of placing their pocketbooks and watches under pillows. Then, after an added forty winks and a rush to get up to keep an appointment or catch a train, leave them, reposing under the pillow, where they are collected by the maids and turned over to the housekeepers to await call.

"Many of the things in the rooms are never called for," it was explained. Each article is done up in a package and the room number and date of finding is recorded. We have had instances in which silk shirts, pajamas by the scores, bedroom slippers, bath robes and other articles were never claimed. However, we have very few articles of woman's apparel that are not called for within a few hours after the loss is discovered."

Next year's convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs will be held at Chattanooga, Tenn.

THE WIDE WAYS OF NATURE

The golden days of autumn are come. Just now, with October smiles of sunny sheen irradiating the earth, one needs little imagination to see old Silenus come riding down the panoramic aisles of the painted forests with troops of maenads and bacchanals following with riotous laughter.

This is the season when the man or woman who is able to walk really senses and enjoys the beauty and glory of life. It is the season which invariably recalls the lines of Milton: "O, earth, how like to Heaven, if not preferred more justly!"

And he who cannot enjoy a five or ten mile walk at this season never realizes the wider good which may come to mortals. But walks of lesser distances are good; only walk, and look, and listen!

The robins still are here, the blue birds still warbling. In these days of early autumn the woods and fields and roadside ways are luminous with the brightness of many flowers. True, the leafage is paling from green to gray; but, far and near, as the fairies of the frost perform their artist ministry, the world is donning robes of crimson, gold, mauve, amber and multiple tints impossible of description. The mold is soft and aromatic, the minstrel crickets busy with their orchestration. In sheltered nooks the ferns still glow greenly, but soon will take on the twilight tones of shadow. About the trees the greenish-yellow moss and the gray lichens cling. The bobwhite calls his love-note to his brown mate across the fields. The jay screams. A chipmunk runs along a vine-clad fence. A rabbit scurries before the advance of an unknown tread. The air is misty, shot with amethystine hues. The wild grape purples. The sumach flames. The primrose sails the pasture seas. It is autumn, and the winter is not far away.

Go out afield, not for the sake of health, but for the wider good; the spiritual uplift, the aesthetic delight. Brown October will soon invite you.

SUNDAY SCHOOLROOM SMILES

("Topics of The Day" Films)

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy in the schoolroom as well as anywhere else. But, Jack, Johnny, Mary, Jenny and all the other representatives of the younger generation do their bit to add a little play to school work by their humorous questions and answers. In most cases the pupil does not try to be funny in answering the teacher's questions. Nevertheless, the replies often tickle the risibles and upset discipline for a few moments. On the screen in "Topics of The Day" Films, schoolroom smiles always pass with high marks of approval exemplified by rounds of hearty laughter. Readers, come back to the schoolroom for a short period of laughter with the specimen smiles we have assembled here:

Teacher—"You dirty boy, you. Why don't you wash your face? I can see what you had for breakfast this morning."

Bob—"What was it?"
Teacher—"Eggs."
Bob—"Wrong. That was yesterday."—Lone Scout.

Teacher—"Is there any connecting link between the animal and vegetable kingdoms?"
Willie—"Yes mam! Hash."—Atlantic City Union.

Teacher—"Anthony, punctuate: I am going to give you a mark of 100 in all your studies."

Anthony—"Qestion mark at the end."—Rutgers.

Teacher—"Do you know what the Order of the Bath is?"
Mickey—"Sure, ma'ma. In our house it's Katy, then me brudder, then me."—Butler Collegian.

Teacher—"Children, a planet is something we live on. Name another."

BANKERS APPROVE CO-OPERATIVE TOBACCO PLAN

LOUISVILLE, KY., Aug. 26.—Approval of the co-operative tobacco marketing plan was included in resolutions passed Thursday at the final session of the Kentucky State Bankers' Association.

The resolutions also approved the international disarmament conference, through which, according to opinions expressed by the bankers, prosperity will be assured, if the conference is successful. The resolutions also praised Congress for its efforts "to revise the Federal tax law to the end that citizens may be relieved of as much of the burden of taxation as is consistent with the requirements of the Government."

Declaring that efforts of the Federal Government to improve conditions throughout the country would be fruitless unless City, County and State Governments are improved in tone, the resolutions urged that business men serve in the City Councils and the State Legislatures. A general improvement of government will be brought about only through the efforts of the best citizens of the State, it was declared.

The resolutions also advocated improvements if Kentucky schools, and sufficient appropriations for the University of Kentucky and the normal schools in order that capable teachers may be employed to teach agriculture, commerce, the arts and the sciences. They also approved the movement for a Better School Week in the State early in September.

The association approved recommendations by J. S. Crenshaw for co-operation between farm bureaus, boards of commerce, county schools and county banking associations. Mr. Crenshaw's speech also contained approval of the tobacco marketing plan.

Officers elected are: President, Claude D. Minor, Perryville; vice-president of the National Bank Section, Frank I. Dugan, Louisville; vice-president of the State Bank Section, C. N. Manning, Lexington; treasurer, Wm. B. Grogan, Murray, Harry G. Smith, Louisville, was re-elected secretary. E. P. Stum, Madisonville; L. D. Jones, Frankfort, and F. H. Bead, Bowling Green, were elected members of the Executive Committee for three-year terms. S. H. Boyle, Danville, was elected chairman of the committee. T. Kennedy Helm was re-appointed attorney for the association.

A. S. Whitt, Winchester, was elected vice-president of the Kentucky Section of the American Bankers' Association to succeed Mrs. C. E. Hearin, Clay, Ky. Other officers elected were: Vice president of the Trust Section, G. E. Best, Harrodsburg; vice-president of the Savings Bank Section, Hugh L. Rose, Louisville; vice-president for the National Bank Section, A. M. Larkin, Newport; vice-president for the State Bank Section, W. S. Snow, Providence.

Walter Howell, president of the Federal Land Bank, Louisville, explained the details of the system, which, he said, was a benefit to country banks in that it brings additional capital to communities. The bank has been short of funds but next year will have $1,000,000 a month to be distributed in Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Tennessee.

Chas. W. Ellsworth, New Orleans, contrasted the banker of the past with the 1921 banker. The latter-day banker, he said, is efficient and capable. His office is within easy reach of the public. The man he has succeeded was frigid and distant, he explained.

Mr. Crenshaw's speech, "The Bankers' Relation to the Farmer," asked for recognition of the farmer's needs. "The farmer must work out his own salvation," Mr. Crenshaw declared. "It is useless for him to pass the hat and expect the public or the Government to make good his losses. The farmer has never asked for special privileges. He is not seeking to establish a national agricultural policy, or a place of harmony with the best interests of all classes. All he asks is that he be recognized in his relationship with the transporter, the laborer, the manufacturer, the distributor and the financier. 'The time has come for the bankers to form a closer relationship with the farmers.'"

"Cold in the Head"

Is an acute attack of Nasal Catarrh. Those subject to frequent "colds in the head" will find that the use of HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will build up the system, cleanse the blood and render them less liable to colds. Repeated attacks of Acute Catarrh may lead to Chronic Catarrh. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions. All Druggists. Circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

GOOD ROADS ARE FAVORED BY WOMEN

Evidence of widespread interest in good highways was shown at the recent meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Salt Lake City. In endorsing the Townsend bill for national highways, now before Congress, Mrs. John Dickinson Sherman, of Chicago, chairman of the Department of Applied Education, said: "It is not necessary for us to point out the real interest of American women in highway matters. The influence of real highways on country life, on economics, on education, is now generally understood. What is needed is a national highway policy which will conserve government funds, and, through concentration of Federal money on main highways, will give us a connected system at the earliest moment and the least expense."

BURLEY TOBACCO CAMPAIGN

The committee having in charge the work of soliciting membership in the Co-operative Burley Tobacco Marketing Association have been busy all the week, with varying success, but in the main, very well satisfied with the progress made. They realize that all cannot be done in a day, and are making the canvass with the idea of fully impressing upon the business and of the Burley Association's proposed plan.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at Ruddle's Mills last night, attended by a large crowd of representative growers and farmers of the vicinity. Addresses were made by John W. Jones, of North Middletown, who explained the plan made for financing the organization, and Virgil Chapman, of Paris, who told of the aims, objects and benefits of the organization. A large number of women were in the audience. At the conclusion of the addresses a number of signatures to contracts were taken.

A meeting was held at the Central Hill school house Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which the principal speaker was John W. Jones, cashier of the North Middletown Deposit Bank, who explained in detail the matters of finance connected with the co-operative tobacco marketing plan. Mr. Jones has made a careful study of all phases of the tobacco of the tobacco business and of the Burley Association's proposed plan. James M. Caldwell, of Paris, one of the most ardent advocates and supporters of the marketing plan, was a visitor at the Lexington headquarters of the Association, Wednesday, and reported the campaign in Bourbon county as progressing very favorably and arousing general interest.

INSKO CARLISLE POSTMASTER

Wyatt M. Insko, prominent Republican, of Carlisle, has been notified that he has been appointed acting postmaster at Carlisle, effective September 1, when the resignation of the present postmaster, A. B. Tilton, takes place. Mr. Insko will hold the office until an examination is held to select the permanent postmaster. It is probable that he will receive the office permanently. Mr. Insko was chairman of the campaign committee last fall and has been an active worker in the party for many years. For a number of years he was deputy revenue collector. Mr. Tilton, the present postmaster, tendered his resignation several days ago. He was nominated for County Judge on the Democratic ticket at the recent primary.

Mrs. Aida Harondono has been appointed to the post of second engineer in the Argentina Office of Roads and Bridges.

You've Struck it Right
when you Light a CAMEL

Your taste will tell you that! For Camels have the flavor and fragrance of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended. They're smooth and mellow-mild.

And there's NO CIGARETTE AFTER-TASTE.

We put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

That's why Camels are THE QUALITY CIGARETTE.

—Mrs. Josie Igo, aged sixty-five, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital in this city, at 1:35 o'clock Sunday morning, after an illness of several days, due to a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Igo is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Hines, of near Paris, and two sons, Charles Igo, of Middletown, Ohio, and Edward Igo, of near Paris.

The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church.

SEARCE

—Millard F. Searce, aged seventy-three, a former resident of Bourbon county, where he was engaged in farming several years, died in the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, last week, of a complication of diseases. He was the last of a large family of children, his only living relatives being a nephew, H. S. Gilkey, of Winchester, and a niece, Mrs. J. L. Lunsford, of Lawrence, Indiana. The funeral was held Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock with services conducted at the grave in the Winchester Cemetery by Rev. J. H. MacNeill.

VIMONT

—Mrs. Mary Jane Vimont, aged eighty-eight, died at her home in Millersburg, at an early hour Friday morning, following a prolonged illness from the infirmities of age. She was the widow of Lieut.-Col. Thomas T. Vimont, of Civil War fame, who died in 1864. Mrs. Vimont was the daughter of the late John D. and Jane Sadler Vimont, pioneer residents of Millersburg. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Bettie Tom Vimont, and one son, John B. Vimont, both of Millersburg.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Millersburg Cemetery by Rev. Kelly White.

JONES

—John T. Jones, aged eighty-two, one of the best-known horsemen in Central Kentucky, died at the Confederate Home, in Pewee Valley, Ky., Friday, after a short illness. Mr. Jones was well-known in Paris and Bourbon county, where he had handled trotters for some of the largest stock farms in the county.

Mr. Jones was born and reared in Clark county, and lived there until a few years ago, when he went to the Confederate Home to reside. He is survived by two sons, John T. Jones, Jr., residing near Ft. Worth, Texas, and Ben VanMeter Jones, of near Lexington. He was a captain in the Confederate army and served under General John H. Morgan throughout the war as a member of Company D., Second Kentucky Cavalry. He was a breeder of fine horses. Since being at the Confederate Home he had visited his old home in Clark county at regular intervals.

ESTES

—Following a long illness, Mrs. Malinda H. Estes, aged eighty-three, died at the home of her son, Jas. W. Estes, on Clifton avenue, in this city Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Estes had been an invalid for some months, due to the infirmities of age, and her death was not unexpected.

Mrs. Estes was the widow of John T. Estes, one of the pioneer citizens of Bourbon county, and was a woman of high character, a devoted mother and wife, and one who cherished the highest ideals of womanhood and Christianity as her life-guides.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Hannah Frye, of Spencer county; Mrs. Delilah Stevens, of Paris; Mrs. Florence Sharon, of Newtown, Scott county; and Mrs. Lena B. Sidener, of Fayette county; five sons, J. W. Estes, of Paris; John W. Estes, of Fayette county; C. G. Estes, G. W. Estes and C. H. Estes, all of Huntington, W. Va., and one brother, Lloyd Harp, of Forsythe, Ga.

The funeral will be held this (Tuesday) afternoon, at three o'clock with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. J. W.
